

Centennial Events

Building on a Century of Excellence in Education

* “Journey to Fitness Workshop Series”

September 12 – October 4, 2006

Demonstration/Performance: Exercise and wellness workshop series

Sponsored by Exercise Science

Workshops will be offered twice each day, 12 p.m. and 12:45 p.m.

September 12, “Everything You Ever Wanted to Know About Walking,” Speaker: Cameron Hall, Presider: Dr. Jill Kanaley

September 13, “Fitness Related Injuries,” Speaker: Tim Neal, Presider: Dr. Tim Fairchild

September 19, “Nutrition and Exercise,” Speaker: Kay Bruening, Presider: Dr. Keith DeRuisseau

September 20, “Exercise and Time Management,” Speaker: Dr. Tim Fairchild, Presider: Assistant Professor, Scott Collier

September 26, “Blood Pressure and Exercise,” Speaker: Health & Exercise Science Majors, Presider: Assistant Professor, Scott Collier

September 27, “If the Shoe Fits...,” Speaker: Brendan Jackson, Fleet Feet, Presider: Summer Cook

October 3, “Get the Family Moving!” Speaker: Physical Education Majors, Presider: Dr. Elaine Gregory

October 4, “Ask the Expert...” Speaker: Exercise Science Faculty, Presider: Dr. Lori Ploutz-Snyder

“Combating the Culture of Exclusion in the Era of High Stakes Accountability in Urban Schools”

September 14, 2006

Lecture: Elisa Hyman, executive director, Advocates for Children of New York

Sponsored by the Centennial Lecture Series

“The Ultimate IDD&E Curriculum Validation Venture”

September 15-17, 2006

Technical Showcase: Weekend with faculty and alumni

Sponsored by Instructional Design, Development, and Evaluation

“Arts and Disability” and “Inclusive Practices in the Music Classroom”

September 27-28, 2006

Seminars: Alice-Ann Darrow, Irvin Cooper professor, music therapy and music education, Florida State University

Sponsored by Teaching and Leadership

“Celebrating Our History to Build Our Future: A Reading and Language Arts Celebration”

October 6-7, 2006

Weekend Celebration: Breakfasts, dinner and conference with former faculty, alums and students including Karen Wixon, Harold Herber and Sharon Kane. Noted author Laurie Halse Anderson will be 10/6 dinner speaker

Sponsored by Reading and Language Arts

“Building Capital Projects: How to Plan a Quality Learning Environment for Our Students”

October 13, 2006

Keynote: Mark Robbins, dean, School of Architecture; Introduction: Douglas Biklen, dean, School of Education

Sponsored by the Study Council at Syracuse University, Syracuse University School Superintendents Association and the Central New York School Boards Association

“The Power of Mentoring and the Education Profession”

October 19, 2006

Seminar at Lubin House: Nancy Schulman, director, 92nd Street Y Nursery School; Josie Burgos, chair and lead teacher, New York City High School for Leadership and Public Service; Louise Wilkinson, professor, School of Education, Susan Hynds, professor, School of Education and Khuram Hussain, assistant to the dean, School of Education

Sponsored by Reading and Language Arts

“What Makes a Good Teacher? Current Issues in Teacher Education”

October 26, 2006

Lecture: Ken Zeichner, Hoefs-Bascom professor, teacher education, associate dean, University of Wisconsin-Madison; Presider: Mara Sapon-Shevin

Sponsored by Teaching and Leadership

“Preserving the Role of Public Education in Democratic Societies”

October 26, 2006

Ganders Lecture: Ken Zeichner, Hoefs-Bascom professor, teacher education, associate dean, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Sponsored by the Ganders Lecture Series

“Religious Concerns/LGBT Concerns in Higher Education: Difficult Dialogues”

October 30, 2006

Panel discussion: Rabbi Steven Greenberg, National Jewish Center for Learning and Leadership; Cris Mayo, associate professor, University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, Syracuse University’s Rev. Thomas Wolfe, dean, Hendricks Chapel and Rev. Jennifer Baskerville-Burrows, Episcopal chaplain, Hendricks Chapel and rector, Grace Episcopal Church and Adrea Jaehnig, director, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Resource Center. Sponsored by the School of Education, Cultural Foundations of Education, Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgender Resource Center, Hillel at Syracuse University/Winnick Hillel Center for Jewish Life, the LGBT Studies Program, the Department of Religion, the Women’s Studies Program, the Department of Sociology and the Department of Anthropology

“Warped Passages: Unraveling the Mysteries of the Universe’s Hidden Dimensions”

November 29, 2006

Lisa Randall, professor, physics, Harvard University

Sponsored by the Frontiers of Science Lecture Series and the Syracuse Symposium

“Reform of the High School”

Fall 2006

A symposium led by Professor Kenneth A. Strike

Sponsored by Cultural Foundations of Education

“Teaching in Nazi Germany, 1935-1945: The Difficult Knowledge from the Holocaust”

February 8, 2007

William F. Meineke Jr., Ph.D., historian, division of education, U.S. Holocaust Memorial Museum

Sponsored by the Warren Fellowship for Future Educators

“Looking for Educational Equity: Immigrants, Migrants and the New Latino Diaspora”

February 28 – March 1, 2007

Kris D. Gutierrez, professor, social research methodology, Graduate School of Education and Information Studies, UCLA

Sponsored by the Centennial Lecture Series

“How College Affects Students”

March 21 – 22, 2007

Spring Symposium: Patrick T. Terrenzini, distinguished professor and senior scientist, Pennsylvania State University

Sponsored by Higher Education

“Leading as Professional Counselors in a Multicultural Society” and “Celebrating Our SU History: Honoring the Present, Looking to the Future for the Counseling Profession”

April 21, 2007

Alumni Weekend and Seminar: Patricia Arrendondo, associate vice-president and senior advisor for academic initiatives, Arizona State University

Sponsored by Counseling and Human Services

“Expectations Need to Change”

April 25-26, 2007

Julie Eizenberg, AIA, founding principal, KoningEizenbergArchitecture, Santa Monica, CA

Sponsored by the Centennial Lecture Series

Visit <http://soe.syr.edu> for more information